Itinerary

Get stunning with the wonders of nature created by our God.
Discover new corners on this world.

Day 1 - Sunday, July 5th

Depart for Brazil

Day 2 - Monday, July 6th

Arrive in Rio de Janeiro. Welcome to Brazil! Morning arrival in Rio, the vivacious "sun and fun" capital of South America; meet and transfer to your hotel. The rest of the day is yours to rest, relax and acclimate to your new surroundings. Tonight, attend an orientation meeting with your Tour Manager and fellow travelers, followed by dinner at a typical Brazilian restaurant. We recommend that you select flights which arrive no later than 3:30 PM

Overnight: Rio de Janeiro - Meals: Dinner

Day 3 - Tuesday, July 7th

Rio de Janeiro, Tour of Corcovado Mountain. Awake this morning in amazing Rio. Begin the day with an ascent by a scenic cog railway to the summit of Corcovado Hill. Here, at 2,400 feet above the city stands the 125 foot tall statue of Christ the Redeemer. The Christ statue, that embraces the entire city, is designated as one of the seven "New Wonders of the World". See the thrilling 360 degree sweeping view of the city and understand why Rio is known as one of the most beautiful cities in the world.

Afterwards, continue along Rio's famous beaches, including Copacabana and Ipanema before returning to your hotel. - Overnight: Rio de Janeiro - Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 4 - Wednesday, July 8th

Full Day in Rio de Janeiro. This morning join the not-to-be-missed glass cable car ride that takes you to the top of iconic Sugar Loaf Mountain, symbol of the city, where you'll see the stunning panorama of the beaches, Corcovado Mountain, downtown Rio and Guanabara Bay. In the afternoon you will have free time to discover all of the delights of Rio on your own. Watch the volleyball and soccer matches on the beach, shop for local crafts, and linger at a waterfront café to just "people-watch". On your last night in Rio at leisure, be sure to sample the cuisine at some of the fabulous restaurants and cafes ringing the beachfront. Overnight: Rio de Janeiro - Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 5 - Thursday, July 9th

Fly to Iguassu, Brazilian Falls. Depart Rio this morning on a flight to Iguassu Falls. Upon arrival, walk along the winding pathways on the Brazilian side of the majestic and awe-inspiring Falls, one of the world's greatest natural wonders. Iguassu consists of over 275 separate cataracts across a span of two and one-half miles, wider than Victoria Falls and higher than Niagara Falls and more dramatic than both. Stand in awe at the unforgettable panoramic views before crossing the border to Ciudad del Este, Paraguay to visit a new country. After a day filled with unforgettable memories, return to hotel for rest. Overnight: Iguazu - Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 6 - Friday, July 10th

Iguazu, the Argentinean Falls. Today we will celebrate the Sabbath hours at a local church and worship with fellow believers. Our afternoon activities in nature take you to the Argentinean side of the Falls. A rail car takes you to the top of the Falls on the Upper Circuit,* and you will walk to the Lower Circuit where the power of nature surrounds you. Continue along the catwalks to Devil's Gorge - stand in amazement as you gaze at spectacular "Devil's Throat" the most magnificent of all of the cataracts. View, photograph and feel the spray of the thundering waters, one of nature's most impressive achievements and a unique experience for your senses. Spend the rest of the day exploring the natural treasures of Iguazu National Park, designated a World Heritage Site for its rare and endangered flora and fauna. *Please be advised that in order to access the falls, you are required to walk over uneven surfaces, followed by a series of narrow boardwalk paths. The paths feature many sets of stairs and can be slippery due to the mist. - Overnight: Iguazu - Meals: Breakfast

Day 7 - Saturday, July 11th

Fly to Buenos Aires. This afternoon transfer to the airport for your flight to the cosmopolitan city of Buenos Aires. Its beauty is apparent with its elegant architecture, wide tree-shaded boulevards, striking monuments and sprawling parks. Spend the rest of the day at leisure to get acquainted with the "Paris of South America" and its distinct European flavor. As you will have your night at leisure feel free to treat yourself to an Argentine beef dinner at one of the city's many superb steak restaurants
Overnight: Buenos Aires - Meals: Breakfast

Day 8 - Sunday, July 12th

Buenos Aires City Tour. Discover the city's highlights this morning on a tour that includes the Plaza de Mayo, Metropolitan Cathedral and Casa Rosada (government palace); see the balcony where Eva and Juan Peron made their speeches. Then, to the colorful La Boca neighborhood, a working class barrio, and the old quarters of San Telmo and Caminito, a mix of colonial style homes, narrow lanes, artists' lofts and very trendy cafes. Drive to the Recoleta Cemetery, final resting place of many of the wealthiest and most important Argentine historical figures. The grounds here cover more than four city blocks, filled with tombs adorned by works of local and international sculptors, and more than 6,400 mausoleums including the tomb of Eva "Evita" Peron, always heaped with flowers and letters from adoring fans. Spend the rest of the afternoon exploring some of Buenos Aires neighborhoods and fabulous collection of shops before this evening's optional tango lesson with professional Argentine Tango dancers. Tonight is at leisure, or, participate in the optional Argentine Dinner and Tango Show
Optional: Buenos Aires Dinner & Tango Show (PM) Overnight: Buenos Aires - Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 9 - Monday, July 13th

Full day in Uruguay. Grab your passport and cruise across the border to Uruguay on this private full-day tour to Colonia del Sacramento from Buenos Aires, including round-trip transfers and express ferry tickets. Stroll the cobblestone streets of Colonia on a walking tour of the UNESCO-listed Historic Quarter and learn about the town's rich colonial past. Admire the blend of Spanish, Portuguese and post-colonial architecture as you visit landmarks like Nacarello's House, the Portuguese Museum, the Viceroy's House and the Basilica of the Holy Sacrament.

Day 10 - Tuesday, July 14th

El Calafate. Spend a morning at leisure in sophisticated Buenos Aires before flying to contrasting El Calafate, a small city strategically nestled on the shores of Lago Argentino, named for the berry that, once eaten, guarantees your return to Patagonia. This once quaint city, gateway to Los Glaciares National Park and the great Perito Moreno Glacier, is dotted with shops, restaurants and cute cafes that perfectly combine leisure and adventure. Arrive in El Calafate in the evening
Overnight: El Calafate - Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 11 - Wednesday, July 15th

El Chalten. Get 'wild' on your visit to El Calafate by enjoying this full-day trek to El Chalten in Los Glaciares National Park. Marvel at the rugged peaks of the Andes and Argentino Lake as you drive along the famous Route 40. When you reach El Chalten, you'll get to enjoy a range of independent or guided hiking trails within this scenic area. A boxed lunch is also included to help fuel the adventure.
Overnight: El Calafate - Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 12 - Thursday, July 16th

Perito Moreno Glacier. An unforgettable day filled with astonishing scenery as you travel to the Perito Moreno Glacier at Los Glaciares National Park, declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO. This park, established in 1937, is the largest ice cap outside of Antarctica and Greenland with an ice field that controls the world's third largest reserve of fresh water. You'll observe the glacier's massive ice wall, almost 3 miles wide and over 240 feet high above the lake's surface, from a cliffside promenade that overlooks the constantly shifting ice. Afterwards, return to El Calafate to fly to Ushuaia.

Day 13 - Friday, July 17th

Ushuaia. Today we will have a unique Sabbath experience in the southernmost part of the earth. We will take with us the promise "I am with you always even unto the ends of the earth." After sabbath Discover Tierra del Fuego National Park and its spectacular scenery on this half-day excursion from Ushuaia. The world's southernmost national park features glaciers, lakes, mountains and abundant wildlife. Explore by Tierra del Fuego by vehicle or upgrade to include a ride on the End of the World Train.
Overnight: USHUAIA - Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 14 - Saturday, July 18th

Itinerary PERU

Optional PRE Extension PERU (Machu Picchu, Cuzco, Lake Titicaca) 7 days / 5 nights

Day 1 - Tuesday, June 30th Depart for Peru

Depart for Lima, Peru; arrival the next morning into Lima, Peru.

Day 2 - Wednesday, July 1st Fly to Cuzco, Cuzco City Tour

Depart Lima the same morning by flight to Cuzco in the Peruvian Andes. This ancient capital of the Inca Empire is the oldest continuously inhabited city in the western hemisphere, designated a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Upon arrival, transfer to your hotel in this historic city. In the afternoon, depart for a tour of Cuzco.

Overnight: Cuzco Meals: Breakfast

Day 3 - Thursday, July 2nd Discover Machu Picchu

Early morning transfer to the Sacred Valley's Ollanta Station to board the Vistadome Train that travels through misty peaks to the astonishing ancient citadel of Machu Picchu*, the "Lost City of the Incas", designated by UNESCO as one of the New Seven Wonders of the World. Machu Picchu was virtually unknown to the western world until Hiram Bingham's rediscovery in 1911. Spend the morning viewing the unforgettable wonders of this 15th century retreat, abandoned nearly 100 years later with the arrival of the conquistadors. See the highlights of the site including the imposing Temple of the Sun, the House of the Priest, the Sacred Plaza and the intricately carved rock likely used as a sundial by the ancient Incas. The images of this significant archaeological site will be a long-lasting memory. Return to the Sacred Valley in the early evening and transfer to your hotel in Cuzco for overnight

*Approximate time spent at the ruins of Machu Picchu is 3 hours

Overnight: Cuzco

Day 4 - Friday, July 3rd Full Day in Cuzco

Enjoy Sabbath in God's cathedral of nature. Experience the incredible beauty of Rainbow Mountain on a guided hiking tour. You get a chance to see alpacas, llamas, and vicuñas while soaking in the stunning mountain views during the journey. Savor a local lunch before heading back to your accommodation.

Overnight: Near Rainbow Mountain

Day 5 - Saturday, July 4th Raqchi & Puno

Depart in the morning on a unique drive. Enjoy spectacular scenery as you drive through the Andes mountain range and the Andean plains to Puno on the Peruvian side of Lake Titicaca. In this area, South American camelids (llamas and alpacas) graze on the immense plateaus and plains. En route visit the 15th century Temple of Wiracocha, with its elaborate stonework, the largest Inca temple ever discovered. Today, Raqchi remains home to many farmers, ranchers and artisans. Then, arrive at pristine Lake Titicaca sitting majestically at 12,500 feet above sea level, backed by the snowcapped peaks of Bolivia's Cordillera Real range. This is the highest navigable lake in the world and South America's largest fresh water lake. A box lunch will be provided en route. Overnight: Puno.

Day 6 - Sunday, July 5th Excursion to Uros Islands on Lake Titicaca

This morning, an excursion by boat transports you from Puno to the fascinating Uros Floating Islands where the indigenous people of the area, the Uros, live on islands that dot the lake. The Uros live very much the same way as their ancestors did and still follow the ancient customs and traditions. These islands are completely man-made structures, using the totora reeds from the lake to build the islands and houses. Return to Puno for the remainder of the day at leisure. Or, take the optional tour to the Sillustani Tombs, the pre-Incan burial ground on the shores of Lake Umayo. The tombs here are built above the ground in tower-like structures called chullpas, vestiges of the Colla people before they were conquered by the Incas in the 15th century. Evening is at leisure in Puno

Optional: Half Day Sillustani Tombs (PM) - Overnight: Puno

Day 7 - Monday, July 6th Fly to Lima and then on to Rio de Janeiro

This morning transfer to the airport in Juliaca for your flight back to Lima and then on to Brazil. Today we will join our fellow travelers in the sun-kissed eastern side of that beautiful city.

Overnight: Rio de Janeiro
