Itinerary Main Tour

Gain greater insight into the history, geography and unique features of this historic, biblical places.

Day 1 | Tuesday, March 16th

Departure from PDX

Your journey begins with an evening departure from Portland. As the aircraft rises into the night sky, you begin more than international travel—you begin a spiritual pilgrimage into the heart of Reformation history. Tonight, you rest, reflect, and prepare your heart for the days ahead.

Day 2 | Wednesday, March 17th

Arrival in London, Runnymede, and Windsor

Upon arriving in London, the group sets out for Runnymede, birthplace of the Magna Carta, where the earliest seeds of liberty and religious freedom took shape. Standing on this historic meadow invites reflection on how God works through history to defend conscience and truth.

A brief shopping stop allows everyone to gather essentials before enjoying lunch. Then the group walks the iconic Long Walk leading toward Windsor Castle, exploring the royal grounds that once shaped England's religious landscape. Inside St. George's Chapel, the serene beauty of Evensong creates a sacred atmosphere—an invitation to begin the tour with stillness and gratitude. The day finishes at the hotel near Heathrow with dinner on your own.

Day 3 | Thursday, March 18th

Stratford-upon-Avon Warwick

Traveling to Stratford-upon-Avon, you explore Anne Hathaway's Cottage, then visit Shakespeare's Birthplace, stepping into the world of the playwright whose language shaped English worship, hymns, and biblical imagination. A simple to-go lunch is enjoyed along the way.

At Trinity Church, where Shakespeare worshipped, students are invited to consider how stories—both sacred and literary—impact faith. After lunch, and some free time, if time allows, visit to Coventry Cathedral, a powerful symbol of faith, forgiveness, and renewal.

Day 4 | Friday, March 19th

London Reformation Walk, Museums, and River Experience

Today's journey reveals the tension and triumph of the English Reformation. Beginning near the Thames, you explore Embankment and pause at the William Tyndale statue, honoring the translator who gave his life so believers could read Scripture in their own language.

Continuing past Big Ben, Parliament, and Westminster Abbey, these landmarks come alive as sites where conscience, power, and faith collided. A visit near Buckingham Palace adds royal tradition to the experience. After lunch, the group explores the British Museum and Library discovering artifacts that illuminate biblical cultures. The evening closes with Evensong at Westminster Abbey, a moment of reverence in sacred space. Return to the hotel for dinner on your own.

Day 5 | Saturday, March 20th

Sabbath Worship, Olney and Lutterworth

This day of gladness begins with a joyful Sabbath worship at a local SDA Church, joining in fellowship with believers who share your spiritual heritage. A provided lunch follows.

The journey continues to Olney, home of John Newton and the birthplace of Amazing Grace, a powerful reminder of God's transforming love. Next is Lutterworth, where John Wycliffe preached and helped pave the way for the English Bible. A peaceful walk near the River Swift invites contemplation on his courage and sacrifice.

Day 6 | Sunday, March 21st

Cambridge: Punting, Colleges, and Museums

Today's destination is Cambridge, a cradle of scholarship and Reformation thought. The group enjoys a peaceful punting experience on the River Cam, drifting past historic colleges where theologians once wrestled with Scripture.

A guided city tour reveals the academic legacy that helped advance biblical study. After lunch, the group visits the Fitzwilliam Museum, home to artifacts of art, history, and meaning. Free time allows students to explore cafés, bookshops, and quiet corners of the university town before returning to the hotel for dinner on your own.

Day 7 | Monday, March 22nd

Oxford & Afternoon Museums

Your day in Oxford begins with a morning journey into one of the world's most influential university cities, where faith, scholarship, and reform once converged in powerful ways. During your sightseeing time, you'll walk the very streets where Hugh Latimer and Nicholas Ridley were martyred, their steadfast courage for biblical truth still echoing at the site of their burning. Nearby colleges recall the passionate devotion of John and Charles Wesley and the Holy Club, whose disciplined pursuit of holiness helped ignite the Great Awakening and shape modern evangelical spirituality. After exploring these historic sites, the group enjoys lunch together before an afternoon filled with museum visits and free time—an opportunity to breathe in the academic atmosphere, reflect on the legacy of reformers, and discover Oxford's timeless blend of beauty, conviction, and faith.

Day 8 | Tuesday, March 23rd

Cotswolds, Bath, and Stonehenge

Traveling into the English countryside, the tour explores the Cotswolds, visiting the postcard-perfect villages of Burford and Bibury. Their quiet charm offers a moment to breathe deeply and reflect on the beauty of creation.

Next, your journey to Bath, a city marked by ancient and modern seekers of healing, rest, and inspiration. After lunch, if time allow, there is time to wander its streets before driving by Stonehenge, the mysterious prehistoric monument that invites wonder, humility, and awe. Dinner on your own awaits back at the hotel.

Day 9 | Wednesday, March 24th

Canterbury, the Cliffs of Dover, and Dover Castle

The day begins with a journey to Canterbury Cathedral, one of Christianity's great pilgrimage sites, filled with centuries of prayer and spiritual searching. Walk beneath soaring arches where countless believers sought God's presence.

After lunch, the tour travels to the breathtaking Cliffs of Dover, symbols of strength and hope rising over the English Channel. The day continues with a visit to Dover Castle, a fortress layered with stories—from medieval kings to wartime defenders. The group returns to the hotel for dinner on your own.

Day 10 | Thursday, March 25th

Tower of London, Museum of Methodism, and Spiritual Heritage Walk

The day opens at Tower Bridge and the Tower of London, a place where the drama of English history unfolded in vivid, sometimes heartbreaking ways. After lunch, the journey continues with a visit to the historic district surrounding the Museum of Methodism and Bunhill Fields, a resting place for spiritual giants such as John Bunyan, author of Pilgrim's Progress. Free exploration in the area—an opportunity to wander, reflect, and let the stories of the Reformers settle into your heart. The evening concludes with a peaceful return to the hotel, where you can unwind and enjoy dinner at your own pace.

Day 11 | Friday, March 26th

Departure for Home

Your journey concludes as you travel to the airport for your return flight. You carry home more than photos—you carry the courage of the Reformers, the beauty of Scripture, the strength of spiritual community, and the memories of a journey that deepened your walk with God. May the seeds planted on this pilgrimage continue to grow long after you return home.

Day 1 | Sunday, March 14th

Depart PDX for Edinburgh

Your journey begins with expectation and prayer as you fly toward the rugged homeland of Scottish reformers.

Day 2 | Monday, March 15th

Edinburgh Arrival & Reformation Heritage Walk

Arrive in Edinburgh and walk the Royal Mile, where John Knox and other reformers challenged corruption and proclaimed Scripture with boldness. Touring Edinburgh Castle, sense the stronghold mentality of a people determined to defend both truth and freedom. Evening optional: a storytelling walk through Edinburgh's narrow closes, where generations wrestled with faith and conviction.

Day 3 | Tuesday, March 16th

A Day in St Andrews: Walking in the Footsteps of the Reformation

Journey one hour from Edinburgh to St Andrews, the spiritual birthplace of Scotland's Reformation. Explore the dramatic ruins of St Andrews Cathedral, once Scotland's largest church, destroyed following John Knox's fiery 1559 sermon. Visit the clifftop St Andrews Castle where Protestant martyr George Wishart was burned at the stake and Cardinal Beaton was murdered in revenge, and descend into the remarkable siege tunnels where Knox received his call to preach. After lunch, see the Church of the Holy Trinity where Knox preached, walk the ancient streets where reformers debated and died for their faith, and stand at Patrick Hamilton's martyrdom site. This compact medieval town witnessed the sacrifice and conviction that forged Scottish Protestantism and continues to shape the nation today.

Day 4 | Wednesday, March 17th

Morning Flight to London to Meet with the Main Tour Group

Depart Edinburgh on a morning flight and reunite with the main tour group as they arrive. Your shared pilgrimage now begins in full.

Day 1 | Friday, March 26th

Arrival in Paris & First Reflections

Travel to Paris and begin absorbing a city where faith, doubt, beauty, and revolution have shaped the human spirit. Walk along the Seine, see Notre-Dame's resilience, and reflect on how God's light persists even in places marked by conflict and change.

Day 2 | Sabbath, March 27th

SDA Worship & Spiritual Artistry

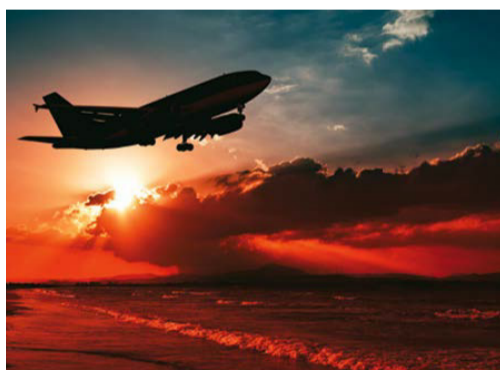

Attend worship at a local Seventh-day Adventist Church, joining a global family united in Scripture. Then explore Montmartre, home to artists who searched for meaning and inspiration. From the steps of Sacré-Cœur, look over the city and consider how God invites each person to shine His light into the world.

Day 3 | Sunday, March 28th

Paris Highlights & Optional Normandy

Today you may explore Paris's treasured landmarks—art, gardens, monuments, and riverbanks that speak to the longing for beauty and transcendence. Or choose a moving OPTIONAL day trip to Normandy (extra charge), where courage and sacrifice echo themes of freedom and redemption.

Day 4 | Monday, March 29th

Farewell Day

Your final morning in Paris is a time to gather the "flowers" of your journey—memories of courage from reformers, wisdom from Scripture, beauty from art and architecture, and the joy of shared fellowship. Like a bouquet carried home, these experiences will continue to blossom in your heart long after the trip ends. As you depart, may the seeds of spiritual renewal planted during this journey grow into a lifelong walk with God.
